2. FEEDBACK

"I can tell you that my kids loved it, and I have found it extraordinarily beneficial. I have added it to the stationary list as compulsory for students year 9 and above who study German"

Melissa Bond – Teacher, Clare High School, Australia

"WOW!! You guys have something truly amazing here!! I have never seen kids sooooo enthusiastic to learn vocab!! And they are learning it! We have had the most fantastic time and the kids at all my schools (Mukinbuidin DHS, Beacon PS, Bencubbin PS and Trayning PS) have been highly motivated and have thoroughly enjoyed the competition, although I have at least one year 9 student who is constantly frustrated with her competitor at another school - how good is that for her, to actually have someone to spur her on to bigger and better!"

Lynne Rockliff – Teacher, Western Australia

"I would just like to say that the language perfect program is a great and very effective program to learn a language."

Kate – Student, John Paul College, Australia

"I have been very happy with my students response to learning foreign language vocabulary on Language Perfect, an online vocab-building program out of New Zealand. Students can revise past vocab and learn new words currently in the vocab bank. Teachers can have additional vocab added for their classes to access. I cannot fault the service from the company, as everyone has been so accommodating, quick to help and friendly in telephone conversations and email correspondence. It's worth the annual fee particularly as the students can learn so many languages with the one program. And the students can log on at school as well as at home. I just wanted to recommend it to other language teachers."

Nicole Phipps – Teacher, The Illawarra Grammar School, Australia

"My students really loved it and although we are such a small school in the Blue Mts of NSW, my Students were really enthusiastic and did well."

Catherine Dignam – Teacher, Korowal School, Australia

"Yes, they love learning vocab! It was interesting reading the examiners' reports for French last year. The comment was made that the Students seemed to know their vocab better!!"

Sue Read – Teacher, Sancta Maria College, New Zealand

"The kids are loving language perfect heaps and heaps! They would probably be happy if we didn't do anything else all year!"

Philippa Kruger – Teacher, Otago Girls High School, New Zealand

"I used it as a tool to test students in class, but many of them became 'addicted' and the clocked up many points! I am happy to say that this has motivated students in a way teachers seem to not be able! While not all students did well enough to make it on the top of a leader board, I want to say that lower achieving students also benefitted from it and now have a more sound vocabulary in Italian."

Joseph Sirianni – Teacher, Brunswick Secondary College, Australia

"My boys are so enthusiastic about Language Perfect - they really love it and are saying it's making a huge difference to their vocab learning. They're on at me all the time to go to the computer room now!!! So, congratulations - it's a wonderful programme and it's making a big difference to the kids. It's a wonderful tool for the boys and they're really positive about the results it's having."

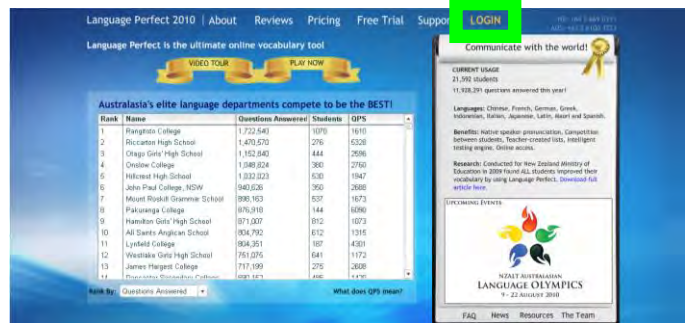

Angela Butler – Teacher, Shirley Boys' High School, New Zealand

Key features:

The navigation buttons on the left hand side relate to different sections of this Action Pack:

- Learn mode – Page 7
- Revise mode – Page 11
- Statistics – Page 12
- Edit Lists – Page 13
- Password – Page 15

The scoreboard shows your score in relation to members of your class. Only those with a similar score are shown.

TEACHERS ACTION PACK

There are two main parts to Language Perfect. Learn mode and Revise mode.

The key difference between the two modes is that we have set the testing parameters for optimal learning efficiency in the Learn mode, and left the choice of testing parameters up to the student in the Revise mode.

4. LEARN MODE

The Learn mode is split into two sections - By List and In Order.

By List is where student's access lists of words that have been created for them by their teacher, or they have created them themselves. There are also a number of pre-made subject lists available for all users.

In Order is where the entire vocabulary list has been arranged into alphabetical order and divided into sets of 15 words each, called tutorials.

We will start by looking at the list section. Put your mouse over the Learn button, click By List then click Select List.

BY LIST

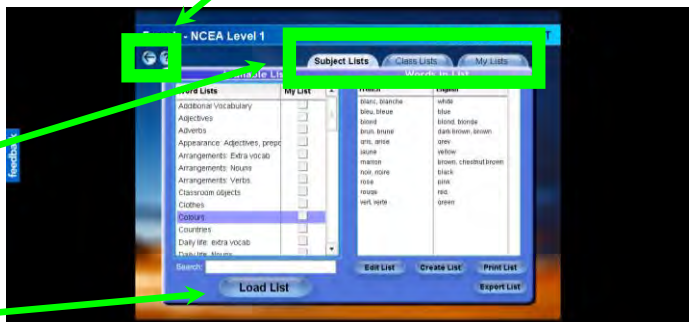

There are three tabs along the top of the screen: Subject Lists – Pre-arranged topic lists available to every user.

Class Lists – Word lists that you, or other teachers at your school, have made for your students.

My Lists – Lists made by students will be stored here in their account. Lists made by you will be stored in your My Lists section as well as the Class Lists section.

Select a list then click Load List.

NOTE: to go back to a previous screen click the blue arrow.

5. THE SCORING SYSTEM

This is written for a student's perspective.

A user can gain up to two points per word per translation mode.

One point can be made in the Learn mode and the other point in the Revise mode.

There are four modes of translation; therefore, each word is worth a total of eight points.

Example:

Let's use the French word 'bonjour' which means hello. Here are all the possible ways to earn points:

LEARN MODE

French Text to English = 1 point

English Text to French = 1 point

Spoken French to French Text = 1 point

Spoken French to English Text = 1 point

REVISE MODE

French Text to English = 1 point

English Text to French = 1 point

Spoken French to French Text = 1 point

Spoken French to English Text = 1 point

TOTAL SCORE = 8 points

By this stage you would have correctly translated the French word 'bonjour' at least 16 times. You will know what it means, how to spell it and how to speak it, so you should get 100% in your exam! Right?

Your points from both modes will combine to form your Score on the main page (see below). The table will also display the names and scores of your classmates who have a similar score to you.

IMPORTANT: A word must be recorded as 'learnt' in the Learn section per translation mode BEFORE you can get a point for that word in the Revise section per corresponding translation mode.

In other words, you will not score any points if you just use the revise mode.

A word is 'learnt' when it has been answered correctly at least 2-3 times in a row.

If you get a word wrong, then right, then wrong, then you haven't actually learnt it yet, have you?

Also if you get a word right 3 times in a row THEN get it wrong, you will lose your point and the word will become 'unlearnt'. You must then 're-learn' the word and prove to Language Perfect that you actually do know the correct answer.

It's so easy to cheat when you are testing yourself on paper, but you can't fool Language Perfect!

Ultimate Game Plan

Burn through the Learn section with lucid determination so that every word is learnt then set your sights on the Revise mode.

Test your skills by giving yourself less time to answer a question and set yourself more questions per test.

There is a quote by Thomas Edison, he states:

"Genius is 1% inspiration and 99% perspiration. Accordingly a genius is often merely a talented person who has done all of his or her homework."

Be sure to thank your teacher for all their hard work and support!

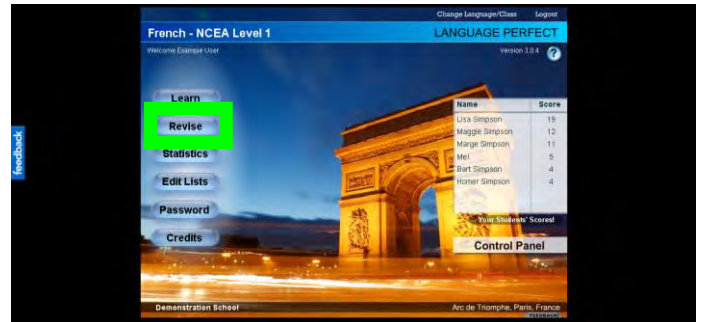

6. REVISE MODE

The Revise mode is also split into two sections – Selected Words and Entire Vocab List.

Selected Words is the same as By List where students select an available list.

Entire Vocab List randomly selects words from the entire vocabulary list. This is different to the In Order function from the Learn mode because the student could be asked any word, not just those from within a tutorial grouping.

Click the Revise button.

SELECTED WORDS

To select a list click the Select List button on the right hand side. Follow the instructions under the BY LIST section on page 7.

Change the numbers in the white boxes under Number of questions and Time for each question.

Choose a translation mode then click START TEST.

ENTIRE VOCAB LIST

This section doesn't let you select a list because it will give you a random word from the entire vocabulary list.

Simply select a translation mode, enter your desired parameters into the white boxes and click START TEST.

8. EDIT LISTS

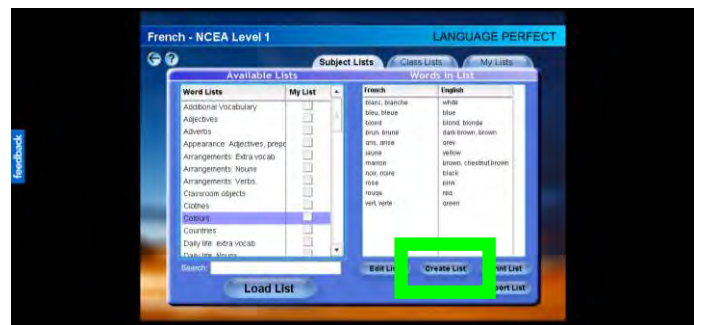

This is where you come to create and edit lists in Language Perfect. You can only create and edit lists from the set of vocabulary already available, however if you would like to add your own words then refer to the section “ADD YOUR OWN WORDS” (page 24).
